

Sun Moon Dance

Joseph Rael, Beautiful Painted Arrow, is the visionary of the Sun Moon Dance. Although the dance was brought forth from the vision of a Native American, it is important to understand that it is not a Native American Dance.

The Sun Moon dance is open to all people of all races, religions and creeds.who seek the inspiration to live a life of greater spiritual awareness and who are willing to invest the effort. This dance provides the special condition necessary for a direct experience of Spirit and of spiritual realms. Each Sun-Moon Dancer is asked to make a commitment to the dance for four years.

The four days of the Sun-Moon Dance bring many teachings. The form of the dance itself is a metaphor for prayer. Sacred dancing teaches us about the power of putting all aspects of ourselves into our prayers – physically, mentally and emotionally. The fasting observed in the dance brings us mental clarity, appreciation for food and clean water, and teaches us how strong we really are. Movement teaches us about the importance of dancing for a vision, and then dancing the vision so that it may be embodied and realized. It also teaches us that manifesting what we truly desire requires commitment, effort and surrender.

On a personal level, Sun-Moon Dancers may experience personal breakthrough and transformation, deep insights and visions, and a spiritual acceleration that lasts throughout the year.

The commitment to dance a full cycle of four dances is important as it brings about healing on mental, emotional, physical and spiritual levels. Since each of us is a microcosm of the planet, the healing we bring to ourselves also brings healing to the earth. For these reasons alone, the dance is a powerful gift that you give to yourself and to those you love.

On a planetary level, the dance works with the energy and spirits of the land. The dance arbor is the sacred Medicine Wheel, and represents the world and the life it contains and nurtures. In the dance, we work to bring in the directional energies of the east, south, west, north, up above, and down below. The web of energy created by the dancers transfers into the land, and permeates the world to bring healing. The dance and the drum releases new spiritual energy from deep within the earth to be used for peace.

Medicine Bowl Horn of Plenty Sun Moon Dance 2010

The Medicine Bowl Sun/Moon Dance Grounds is a nurturing arbor. It was carved out of the side of the mountain in 2003 just in time for Joseph and all the chamber caretakers from around the world to Bless it and give it life at the World Gathering of Peace Chambers.

This year we dance to honor Beautiful Painted Arrow and all he has shared. We do this on a donation basis to also honor all who have danced here for the past 21 years. The tuition for this dance is normally $750.00. This year we ask that each dancer give as they are guided and can afford to offer an exchange of energy.

We also ask that people come to serve the dancers and dance in the way of workers (Dog Soldiers) and everything else that is needed to make this event happen. We look forward to sharing in ceremony with you.

As the Swannanoa Peace / Sound Chamber, the sacred grounds and I step into this new transition I want to thank those who have graced this land with their prayers, their offerings, their dance and their love.

The Dance arbor hold 18 dancers for the 18th World Peace Chamber.
Are you one of them?

Register early and come help us prepare the grounds!
Thank you Again!

"The Horn of Plenty is here. As soon as we focus on a goal, the universe will take us in that direction. We are changing humanity on the planet as we participate in the community."
